Chapter 11

LEHMAN BROTHERS HOLDING INC., et al.,

Case No. 08 – 13555 (JMP)

Debtor(s).

(Jointly Administered)

-----X

SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATION OF RAYMUNDO BONILLA RAMIREZ
WITH OMNIBUS OBJECTION NUMBER 92-CLAIM NUMBER 2821

I, Raymundo Bonilla Ramirez, declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the following is true and correct:

1. I am the General Director of Procesos Controlados S.A. DE C.V., with an office in Cerro Del Tzirate 24, Col. Las Americas, Queretaro, Queretaro, Mexico. I am familiar with Procesos Controlados S.A. DE C.V.'s ("Procesos") claim in the bankruptcy case of Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. (the "Debtor"), and the proof of claim submitted in connection with that claim.

2. I hereby submit this declaration (the "Declaration") in further support of Procesos' Response in Opposition to the Debtor's Ninety-Second Omnibus Objection to Claims (the "Objection"). Except as is set forth below, I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth in this Declaration.

3. On or about February 13, 2009, Procesos timely filed with Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions, LLC, the Debtors' claims agent, one proof of claim ("Proof of Claim") that is at issue in the Debtor's Objection. This Proof of Claim is: Claim No. 2821 in the amount of $203,600.00.

4. The Debtor alleged that the claim should be expunged because Procesos failed to obtain a blocking number. As explained, the problem with obtaining a Blocking Number is that at the time of filing of the Proof of Claim, Procesos was using VectorGlobal WMG ("Vector") as its broker-dealer. Vector made arrangements to have the Proof of Claim filed. Thereafter, the account was transferred to Monex Casa de Bolsa as its broker-dealer. Since it was no longer being serviced by VectorGlobal when it obtained the blocking numbers for its customers, a blocking number was not obtained.

5. Procesos submits that the failure to obtain a blocking number should not be a basis for the denial of its claim, the ownership of which is undisputed.

6. In my previous declaration I referred to the fact that Procesos was the owner of the subject note prior to the filing of the petition and continued, uninterrupted, as the owners until this date.

7. In support of this contention I respectfully submit Exhibit "A" which is a copy of our brokerage account statement dated August 29, 2008 which show our holding of the LBT notes prior to the date of filing. See page 5 of Exhibit "A."

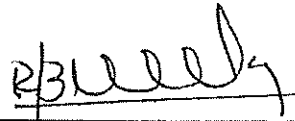

8. Attached as Exhibit "B" please find a copy of our brokerage statement dated June 30, 2011 issued by Monex Securities evidencing the fact that we still own that position. See page 4.

9. Accordingly, since we held these interests prior to the filing of the petition and continued throughout the bankruptcy until this time, we respectfully submit that the motion to expunge the claims should be denied.

10. The purpose of the blocking number was served insomuch as Procesos held the note at the time of filing and still holds the note today and therefore would be no harm to Debtor by allowing this Claim. The rejection of this Claim, however, would cause substantial and serious harm to Procesos for no good, legitimate reason.

11. Procesos respectfully requests that on these facts – where the underlying Note has always been, and continues to be owned by Procesos – that the Court find Procesos' inadvertent failure to obtain a blocking number and include it with the Proof of Claim, be found to constitute harmless error. Procesos respectfully requests that the relief sought in the Objection be denied as relates to Procesos' Proof of Claim.

Dated: November __, 2011

Important Information

Due to new U.S. laws aimed to deter the funding of terrorism and illegal activities in general, certain types of transactions in your account may be questioned and the movement of funds may be subject to restrictions by VectorGlobal WMG, Inc. and or Bear Stearns. You may be asked to provide documentation regarding the source, or use, of funds.

Typically, investors deposit funds into an account to purchase securities. Anyone depositing funds who only holds cash or buys short term risk-free investments (such as U.S. Treasury bills) and then requests funds to be wired from their account may be subject to inquiry. Depending on the circumstances, the request to wire funds out may be limited to returning the funds to the original source.

Furthermore, funds received from or delivered to a third party (a person or entity not listed in the title of your account) are discouraged. Such third party transactions may raise questions about the true beneficial ownership of your account and give the appearance of possible money laundering.
